
AUC Kinanthropologica

AUC Kinanthropologica (Acta Universitatis Carolinae Kinanthropologica) is a Czech and international journal and a forum for dissemination of results in kinanthropology. This interdisciplinary journal, which publishes only unpublished articles in English, presents general and applied fields of kinanthropology, such as anthropology, anthropomotrics, physical education, psychology of sport, sport pedagogy, sociology of sport, philosophy and ethics of sport, history of sport, sport management, physiology of sport and exercise, physiotherapy, and applied physical activity.

About the Editors

Jan Heller is an associate professor of kinanthropology at Charles University. / Jim Parry is a visiting professor at Charles University and a honorary fellow at University of Leeds. / Antonín Rychtecký is a professor of kinanthropology at Charles University.

Subject Areas

sports / education / physiotherapy / history of sports / philosophy of sports / sociology of sports

Abstracting and Indexing

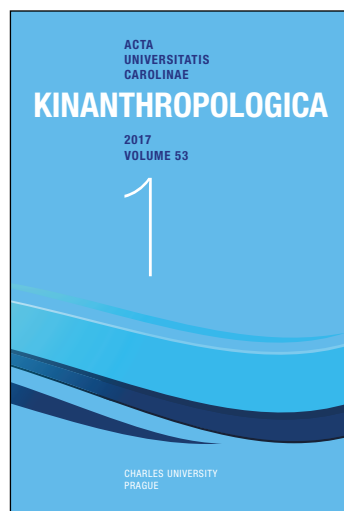

DOAJ, EBSCO, ERIH PLUS, SPOLIT, SPORTDiscus, Ulrichsweb

Editorial Address

AUC Kinanthropologica
José Martího 31
162 50 Praha 6, Czech Republic
Phone: +420 220 172 019
E-mail: auc-k@ftvs.cuni.cz

Subscriptions/Distribution

Single issue: CZK 190
www.karolinum.cz/knihkupectvi
Subscriptions: CZK 380/year
Charles University, Faculty of Physical Education and Sport, Central Sports Library, José Martího 31, 162 52 Praha 6, Czech Republic
auc-k@ftvs.cuni.cz

Two issues/year
100 pages/issue
Founded: 1965
ISSN 1212-1428
E-ISSN 2336-6052